

Daisy Mountain Fire Chief Laid To Rest

Chief Tom Healy Died Friday After Losing His Battle With Cancer

POSTED: 3:20 pm MST August 11, 2010

UPDATED: 4:24 pm MST August 11, 2010

GLENDALE, Ariz. -- The Daisy Mountain Fire Department lost its longtime chief.

Wednesday, thousands of people came out to honor Tom Healy as he was laid to rest in Glendale.

Chief Healy lost his battle to lung cancer Friday morning.

"He was diagnosed in 2009, battled it aggressively. The man was dedicated to his work to say the least," said Capt. Dave Wilson.

Healy served as the head of the Daisy Mountain Fire Department for 11 years. Before that, he served with the Phoenix Fire Department for three decades. Recently Chief Healy was awarded the Arizona Fire Chiefs Association's Lifetime Achievement award for his work and dedication to the fire service.

*Copyright 2010 by KPHO.com. All rights reserved.
This material may not be published, broadcast, rewritten or redistributed.*